

Purim Takeaway

Creative Mishloach Manot Ideas:

Hot cocoa packets and marshmallows in a mug or glass jar

Caramel apples

Homemade cookies or hamentashen

Wreaths of fruit

S'mores kits with graham crackers, chocolate, and marshmallows

Cereal and (shelf stable) milk

Milk and cookies

Apples and honey or honey sticks

Ingredients for a smoothie

A container of yogurt and a jar of granola

Purim Takeaway:

Dress up for Purim as a family! Pick a theme and each take a character.

Make cookies in the shape of masks. Decorate them with sprinkles and colored icing.

Make Rice Krispy treat hamentashen. Use colored icing as the "filling." (See picture)

Create a Purim sock puppet or finger puppets for each of the main characters: Mordechai, Esther, Haman, and King Ahasheuras.

Pick out a new recipe to try for a special Purim feast.

Celebrate the month of Adar, the happiest month in the Jewish calendar, and the month in which Purim falls, by doing something special that makes you happy.

Design your own Purim costume.

Create your own gragger with an empty water bottle, beads, and decorations.

Check out a book from the Adath Israel library about Purim.