

Talmud Torah Takeaway

תלמוד תורה

- 🌍 Set aside time to study the parshah (weekly Torah portion) each week. You can use Etz Chayim at the shul, sign up for a weekly email blast, or watch videos on YouTube.
- 🌍 Build your own Jewish library or check out Jewish books from the public library or the Adath library.
- 🌍 Subscribe to a Jewish magazine (Babaganewz, Moment, and Kveller are some examples).
- 🌍 Attend Jewish camp in the summers, whether it's sleep away camp or a local Jewish camp in Cincinnati.
- 🌍 If you go to a non-Jewish school, educate your peers about what it means to be Jewish. Teach them about your favorite holiday, let them try some culturally Jewish foods, or bring them to shul with you on Shabbat.
- 🌍 Cook food from a Jewish cookbook. Make something you love or something you've never tried before.
- 🌍 Attend Voices of Torah (weekly Torah study) in the Adath Israel library on a Shabbat morning, or join us for another adult ed class offered at Adath.
- 🌍 Bless your food before eating.
- 🌍 Learn to play a piece of Jewish music.
- 🌍 Create a piece of Jewish artwork.
- 🌍 Research a famous Jewish person or historic Jewish event.
- 🌍 Do a taped interview with a grandparent or an "adopted grandparent" about Jewish life when he/she was your age.
- 🌍 Write your own creative prayer to say in the morning when you wake up or at night before going to sleep.
- 🌍 Learn Torah trope and read Torah at services.
